

Looking forward into 2021

Also looking forward for a fresh challenging season with new tribal highlights? Ok, a lot of fairs and exhibitions will still be held online, but the great results of past online fairs proves that the audience is adapting quickly and embraces the digital version enthusiastically. So, let's start with highlighting the shows Tribal Design is participating with.

San Francisco Tribal and Textile Art Show

24th through 28th of February

The San Francisco Tribal Art and Textile Show enters its 35th year in 2021. Therefore a Virtual Version of the premier show of this kind is presented in the United States with over 65 dealers showcasing exiting online exhibits from the top galleries from around the world. It will be the major event of the year for Tribal art. Tribal Design is proud to participate. The show will start with the benefit edition on the 24th of February. www.virtualtribalandtextileartshows.com

Amsterdam Art & Antiques Week

Spring 2021

Tribal Design will participate at the spring edition of the Amsterdam Art and Antique week to be held in March, after a very well received first edition last year. Over 40 Art and Antique dealers, all in one Amsterdam district will all open their doors. In addition to galleries, other buildings, such as the coach house of the Museum van loon, will transform into pop up exhibition spaces. In a time that is challenging for many sectors, Amsterdam Art and Antiques Week brings a welcome lift to the art scene of Amsterdam for both national and international dealers and vendors. The exact date will be announced in the coming months. Check the website. www.amsterdamaaw.com

The Spring Online Tribal Art Fair

29th of April through 1st of May

After the success of last years Tribal Art Fair Amsterdam, the online edition will take place again in spring of this year. Starting at Thursday 29 April at 3 PM until Monday 3 May 10.00 PM (Dutch time), you will be able to enjoy and buy the objects of about thirty plus participating dealers showing their latest acquisitions. Just like the last edition also an interesting lecture program is being scheduled. www.tribalartfair.nl

Tribal Art Fair 2021

28th through 31th of October

Life or online? That's the question. Hopefully there will be a 'life' Tribal Art Fair in the Duif in October, so many people are looking forward to. If not, an online version is already scheduled. Check our website regularly for more information and data.

Tribal Design in the gallery

At the Amsterdam based gallery itself, Tribal Design will organize interesting thematic exhibitions through the year. Data depend of course on the end of the lockdown in the Netherlands. Ideas for exhibitions are in the make, but we will reveal them later in the year. The last couple of months many new objects have been added to our website. Among them an unusual Ibibio mask from the collection of Loed van Bussel, a Maori treasure box, several Asmat figures and shields, Amazonian objects and many more. Do not forget to take a look at our website regularly.
